

Mentoring Covenant

_____ and _____ entered into the following Mentoring Covenant...

The purpose of our meetings is _____.

We agree to prioritize these meetings and meet regularly. We will meet _____ a month, for _____ months in a row, with a time to re-evaluate, enter and exit the relationship at that time.

We agree to regularly pray for each other and be open to the promptings of the Holy Spirit.

We agree to come prepared for our sessions together, holding one another accountable for the actions we each agree to complete in the time between each session.

We agree to maintain confidentiality regarding all that is shared within the mentoring sessions.

Finally, it is understood that spiritual mentoring is intended to assist and encourage a person on their spiritual journey, and is not intended to be counseling, the answer to life's problems, or used as a replacement for the trained expertise of a mental health professional.
