THE WORLD
TELLS US TO SEEK

SUCCESS, POWER

GOD TELLS US
TO SEEK HUMILITY, SERVICE AND LOVE.

The background of the entire image is a close-up photograph of two hands, one from the left and one from the right, reaching towards each other. Their fingers are positioned so that they form a heart shape in the center. The lighting is soft and natural, with a slightly blurred background of green foliage. The text is overlaid on this image in white, with varying font weights and styles.

Falling in Love with the One who Loves Us

“There is no magic formula for holiness...We shall not be saved by a formula, but by a person.”

---St Pope JPII, Novo Millennio Ineunte

“The answer is to fall in love with Jesus Christ. Unless we have a love relationship with the Word of God, the Word cannot speak to us properly. The Word of God is a person. The Word of God is Jesus Christ.” --Fr. Dominic Borg, OCD

The Strangest Way

Fr Robert Barron points out:

“Christianity is not simply a matter of articulate beliefs and organizational structures, but an entire pattern of life...Jesus wants not simply to communicate teachings and insights; he wants to share his life, his way of being...so the evangelist must learn his way before daring to speak of him.”

-Bridging the Great Divide, 267

“The entire purpose of the Christian life is to make us, not simply better people, ethically upright, but to make us divine, to conform us to a participation in the life of the Trinity. Being holy, burning with the fire of God’s own life, is the point.”

---The Strangest Way, 29

Getting Our Lives Straight

Thomas Merton once observed,

“Once I knew that the purpose of my life was to become a saint, I realized that Christianity was not primarily a matter of getting my ideas straight, but rather getting my life straight.”

What exactly is Sainthood?

A saint...

- Looks upon the face of God in Heaven
  - Nothing “unclean” enters the presence of God
  - Therefore, to be with God in heaven means that we are “perfect” —free from sin, “cleansed in the blood of the Lamb”
  - HOLY
- What is holiness?
    - Transforming union with God

Therefore, to become saints, we must become holy.

Becoming a Saint

4 Steps to Holiness

- Daily Meditation and Resolution
- Frequent Reception of the Sacraments
- Root out Sin and live a life of Virtue
- Abandonment to God's Will

Daily Meditation

- Three types of prayer—vocal, meditation and contemplation
- Immerse yourself in the Word of God, especially the Gospels
- The Four “R’s”—Read, Reflect, Relate, Resolution (Lectio Divina)
- Helps us learn obedience, humility and TRUST (faith)

“It is impossible for us to arrive at personal union with God in this life unless we devote sufficient length of time exclusively to this personal dialogue...any apostolate will only be as successful in the measure that we ourselves live that supernatural inner life.”

--Fr Gabriel Mary Magdalene, Divine Intimacy

To be friends with God means to pray with simplicity, like children talking to their parents.

-Pope Francis

Spiritual Reading

“Reading whose purpose is to assist the believer to better know, love and serve God and thereby become more God-like, which means to be more holy, especially in his prayer and the practice of Christian virtue”

–Fr John Hardon, SJ, Theology of Prayer

- Every Catholic should without fail make spiritual reading daily for ten or fifteen minutes.
- Read books that appeal to you
- Pray before reading
- Read your book not once, but many times

Daily Resolution

- To apply the Gospel to our daily lives, we make a practical, specific and concrete daily resolution
- Resolution used throughout the day to remain mindful of our Lord's teachings
- Helps with our Examen at the end of the day to see how well we have lived the Gospel

“Read a little, think a little, pray a little, apply the truths to yourself, and make your resolution.”

IF YOU DON'T HAVE TIME TO PRAY AND
READ SCRIPTURES,
YOU ARE BUSIER THAN
GOD EVER INTENDED
YOU TO BE.

"IF WE ARE TO KNOW THE LORD,
WE MUST GO TO HIM. LISTEN TO HIM IN SILENCE BEFORE
THE TABERNACLE AND APPROACH
HIM IN THE SACRAMENTS."

~ POPE FRANCIS
